

"Salvador Dali: The Myth of Surrealism"

Running until March 25th, the Leventis Municipal Museum will be presenting a series of sculptures and lithographs by the most renowned envoy of surrealist art.

The main focus is to present a different perspective of the artist's work, one that is less known to the general public.

The exhibition brings together twelve original bronze sculptures, some of which exceed two meters in height. The exhibition also includes another twelve numbered bronze sculptures as well as twenty one lithographs.
