

Background

The combination of various large format outdoor boards on all highways around Cyprus, produced a particularly effective campaign for the Greek Hellenic Tourism Organisation.

Various themes promoting Greece were placed around Cyprus in an effort to target vehicular traffic both locals and visitors to the island.

Our research, showed that the Hellenic Tourism Organisation campaign achieved satisfactory advertising awareness for its audience target group. This campaign ran along many other campaigns in other capitals in Cyprus.

